Beaverton Creek Business Park is a 54-acre, master-planned business park ideally located just off Murray Blvd and Millikan Way in the Sunset Corridor. Beaverton Creek Business Park features flexible and efficiently designed buildings which can accommodate a variety of uses. The buildings are ideal for R&D engineering, light manufacturing, incubator offices and other support functions. The park is home to some of the Portland area's most discriminating tenants.

Beaverton Creek offers tenants a wide variety of amenities including an on-site restaurant, nearby hotels, fitness centers, shopping and restaurants. The Beaverton Creek Light Rail Station is within easy walking distance and the park offers easy access to Millikan Way and Murray Blvd. Generous parking and a spectacular natural setting are also among the park's many features.
